

April 2.

Junie:

Guess what? In exactly two months I will be an upper classman. Think of it a sophomore move at A + M., and this time last year I wasn't planning on being anything but a private.

I got your letter yesterday and it pick me up as usual. Are you glad to be a working girl again? Better get the nineteenth off.

I was talking to Pro's boy friend today; he says she hasn't sent him that candy yet. You can tell her about it if you see her. You can also tell her that he said that he might stop off in Houston for awhile during the holidays holidays, that's all we talk about up here. Delli, my room-mate is coming home with me.

Seen any good shows lately. I saw "Comrade X" yesterday. Pretty good. Reddy wasn't so hot.

Well kiddo I guess that's all except that I wish this was the night of the 10th, This next week will seem like ages.

Delli says hello and he also says that your picture doesn't do you justice
(I don't think it does either)

I'll see you soon. Be good and write soon.

Love
Billy
