

April 22, 44 day 2.

Dear June:

Got your letter today (both of 'em). Next week will be in plenty of time to let me know. I wrote you early so that you would have plenty of time to work on the deal. I sure hope you can go.

I think my room-mate is going to answer your letter so I won't say anything for him.

I guess Betty & Allen are still talking about Monday night; guess they have a right to.

My room-mate didn't like the idea of my saying the things he did were high schoolish. But don't you ~~you~~ think that is a bit kiddish of an I just being an old man. Now kid if you want to play and like to the game well I'll play with you.

I may (we may) see you this week-end if I don't go to the funeral.

Give my regards to everybody. Tell
Mom & Betty to write soon.
I'll see ya

Love

Bill
