Amopola:

How are you? Have you recovered from the week-end yet? Selliie tells me that you'~~re~~ all had a swell time. I wish I could have been there.

I'm sure glad that you're getting off early Sat. 7th. You'll get to go on the bus won't you? I'll be doing good if I get away from here by 5:00 o'clock.

I guess you know that Lard, Wafey, and Alvin were down I mean up here over the week-end. We went to the show and spent the rest of our time either at the airport or in the room talking. Of course all of us would have given anything to have been in Galveston.

I'm terribly sorry about that postage due business; I had intended having the letter weighed before sending it but one of the boys mailed it without my knowing. It won't happen again.

How do you like your job by now? I'll be back at mine on the 9th. Just 17 more days now. ... Boy!

Is your Aunt Myra still there if she is give her my love and tell your Mom & Dad hello and the gang the same.

I'm going to have to be a "quiz kid" this week and next. These grades that I make now mean a lot.

Well there is really no news to tell just now so I guess I'll close. Write soon.

Love

Bill.

Dellie says hello!
