

May 26,

Amapola:

The end is near, very near. Only 12 more days to be exact, but oh! what days, exams, one after another. We're going to have to be quiz kids this week, all of us. I guess we'll come out O.K. though.

I have a story to tell you, but I don't whether I should or not; it shows me up pretty bad. Well anyway here goes. You know one of the reasons why I didn't come in to Houston to go to Galveston with you all was because I had to study for a very important test. Well Dellie was in the same boat but he through good judgement out the window and trucked on down to Houston for the fun. Well (here's where the funny part comes in) we received our grades on said test today, they read as follows:

William D. Lewis	---	87
Dellie Voelkel	---	100

Lard & Waley leave tomorrow. I sure wish that I could be in Houston to see them off. Waley will be going to Randolph pretty soon to realize his ambition. I sure hope my chance comes soon. Waley will make a good flyer. I just wish that Lard could go too. I guess Ben is going to take flying this summer so maybe he'll go to Randolph too.

I wish that you would do me a favor and tell Bonnie Dell that I'm sorry that I haven't answered her letter yet but I just haven't had time. I'll try and answer it before I go home.

Have you all organized for the picnic this coming (I mean) Saturday week. I bet you have fun. Guess what? Dellie got a letter from Pro yesterday (one of many) and Pro invited him to eat at their table (The Ravens) on that day. I believe Dellie is going to be at the picnic and also Casa Del Mar, as for me, well I'm not sure yet. I want to very much but I shall have to wait and see what Mam has planned.

By the way y'al ave still going to Casa Del Mar aren't you? Poppa al said in a letter the other day that you wanted too but I haven't heard from him since.

Dellie still talks about his trip to Galveston, and he's ready to go again right now. We'll have to make another trip sometime this summer.

Well I guess I've ran out again
so until next week some time goodbyes.

Love

Bill
