

December 9,

Dearest June:

I received #'s 7 and 8 today and I believe I told you that I received # 9 some time ago. I don't know what ever happened to # 6 but it will show up one of these days. I'm used to them coming out of order now and it doesn't make any difference how or when they come as long as they come often.

You are right too about you besting me about 3 to 1 in letter writing and I'm sorry about that, but you must remember my sweet you have so much more to write about and in answer to one of your questions your letters are not censored.

I'm glad that you enjoyed the Soldier's dance and I think I do know how much you like to dance.

By the way in the mess hall the other day I was feeding my face and talking to some of the boys when I happened to hear the words of a song coming over the loud speaker. They were close to you and I stopped and listened to the end of what I guess is your favorite song. Maybe you have another now though, huh? It was the first time I had heard the song and I agree with you.

I'm sending you a page from Yank Magazine that you might have already seen. The picture on the page was sketched by a Sgt. in the C. I. O. and it is good because of its accuracy. I thought maybe you would like to see it.

My last letter to you was a v mail and now you tell me in a letter today that you would rather have one air-mail than three or four v-mail. So I'm sorry. From now on you shall have air mail unless I want to tell you something in a hurry.

Speaking of dancing a while ago you know you will probably have to teach me to dance all over again when I get home. I never was so hot you know and I dance so little over here. I will be fun learning though with you as a teacher. I guess we'll have to spend about two or three months when I get home just making the dances to get me in the groove again if I ever was in.

I wish I could have seen the show that the choir put on at Davis.
Bess sent me the program and from her comments on it I gathered it was a riot.

about "So Proudly We Hail" I enjoyed it, but it could have been a little more real. As for "Here I Hold" I thought it was swell. Deanna always turns in a good one.

I'm sorry that I can't turn this stamp up side down for obvious reasons.

I had a happy Thanksgiving Day
I hope you had the same.

Our radio is broke again so we have to do without music during the day unless we go to the club. Of course we can hear Denah Shore Montgomery every morning in the mess hall while we're eating breakfast. She sure sings "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To."

I guess I've been on long enough for now.

You be good and have a good time Christmas. I wish I could be you, I miss you very much.

Love,
Bill

I'm sorry that I can't turn this stamp into a gift for you for Christmas but it would have been a little more if I had a happy Thanksgiving day
I hope you had the same
