My Sweet:

How are you. huh? I know you think I'm a heel for not writing for being in Houston and not calling and I have no excuse for the former, but for the latter I would like to present my case before her honor. Bill Lewis was in Houston and he thought that he was going to stay another night and he wanted to call up his best girl and ask her if she would like to have a date. We wanted to surprise her and was going to wait until the after noon, but when he returned to the field the next morning there was an airplane to take him back to his job and the pilot says we must go now. That is my only defense and I throw myself at the mercy of the court.

Glad you liked the picture, didn't think it was so hot myself.

was in West Palm Beach the other day and is it a place to have fun. That just about completes my list for places to visit except Silver Springs.

Haven't heard hit parade for a long time
but as far as I'm concerned "It Seems I've Heard That Song Before" (Or James) "Black Magic" (D. Miller) and "You'd be so nice to come home to" head
the list.

Guess I've said enough for now. Please don't stop writing and I'll try to do better.

Love

Bill
