

Saturday Oct 2,
England:

Dearest June:

How are you this Saturday evening my sweet. I've been sitting here thinking. When it is 4 a.m. Sunday here and 9:00 P.m. in Houston, I wonder what she will be doing; what will she be wearing. I guess I dream too much.

Went to London again and I've neglected writing to one who has been so faithful in writing to me. You know why I don't deserve so many letters from you, but I don't know what I would do if they ever stopped coming. Saw a lot of pictures while I was there ah so many. Let's see now there was Wallace Berry in one I believe it was "Salute to The Marines" (man his daughter in it woud what a Blonde beauty Maxwell I believe her name is) Then there was Robt. Donat in "Adventures of Lartu" (good). Walt Disney's "Victory Show Air Power", there was another one it was shown with V. L. A. P. and I thought it was a comedy and I didn't pay any attention to the name but John Craven (Human Comedy) and the little girl that played Van Johnson's girl in Human Comedy were in it along with the Old lady that was in Lucky Gordon it was very good too. And then I had to go and see Stage Door Canteen again. I did like that one, both times.

I have some picture Post Cards of some of the sites in London. I'm going to send you some by regular mail.

No need to tell you how much I missed you when I was in the big city. It's nothing new, missing you I mean.

Tomorrow is Sunday and I'm free in the morning so I will go to church. I like the little service they have here on the Post it is the best way in the world to get away from it all.

Oh yeah! I have a confession to make too. I'm afraid I got slightly plastered in London. I don't know why I tell you this I don't tell anybody else. I don't make a habit of such things though.

If you do have the 6-16 film I will be awfully glad to get it but don't go to too much trouble to find it. please.

Your two letters 16-17

4.

September came today. One of 17 came a few days ago. They do that quite often it's o.k. though I read them all with keen delight. It might be a good idea to number them say in the right lower corner. Then we would know when one was missing I'll start with this one.

I'm glad the storm
past and left Houston as it was.

Some English gal
is singing "Thanks For The Memories" on the wireless now. Memories are good things to have and I have you to thank for some of my best. Certain moonlight night rides and those evenings at Sylvan. You used to make me so mad on some of those nights. Sometimes you were so warm and close then you would be cold as ice at other times and seem to regard me all the indifference in the world. I say it seemed that way, it was just me I guess and I hope. Anyway Thanks for the memories June.

"Done With The Wind" is in its fourth year in London and it still packs them in.
I'm always tempted to go in and see it again, but 4 times is enough I guess.

I guess I've about said enough for one night. One more thing as they say in French Bon sois ma chere. Of course you should seal that with a kiss, but that will have to wait.

Love
Bill
