June Darling:

I received a letter today from Mom telling of the marriage and the new address I wish I could have been there. I'm glad you were present at the ceremony. All of this makes me very happy. I don't ever have to worry about Mom being alone again.

By the way with Mom's letter came 43 47 + 48 from a lil girl in Houston who keeps up my morale with love letters. Thanks for eating the ice cream for me. I wish I had a dish right now. You, my sweet, like all the rest are expecting me to walk into Houston a lot sooner than it is at all possible. As much as I want to do just that and as much as I would like to see you again, it will be sometime before the great day arrives. Maybe I will be able to dance with you under a Harvest moon, I hope so.

I was in London with Lard a few days ago. We had a swell time of course. We drank quite a few for old times sake and things were going good before the evening was over. Short is going great guns now. He has twenty and I do believe he will beat me home in fact I'm almost sure of it. I wish we could go home at the same time.

By the way I have the picture of the crew here and I will send it just as soon as I find the right size envelope. It is just like the one I sent to Mom. I hope you have the picture of my love (one of them) by now. You know I told you before I thought a long time before I sent it. I don't know how you feel about the ole B-26. She has carried me safely for some time now and there will always be a warm spot in my heart for her. Any way I hope you like it.

By the way how old is this boss of yours anyway? I don't like that "I feel closer to him now". What's wrong with these gals anyway? Just tired of working I guess, huh?

Glad to hear in #48 that your dad is feeling good again. Give my regards to him and your mother and Aunt Myra.

Well, Mommy I guess I'll quit now. Write again soon.

Love
