

February - - 14

My dearest June:

I have more troubles, my sweet and I hope you don't mind if I unburden myself. I guess you see by the return address that what I feared about changing squadrons, even after we had made the other change, has happened. If you only know the confusion of moving in the army. Then we have that adjustment to new rules and regulations repetition of old ground school subjects oh my Sherman was right.

Anyway I did have a break before changing squadrons. I went to London and saw "Thousands Cheer" and what a morale builder that was

. . . or should I say what a bunch of morale builders they were
and I do mean Katherine Grayson Georgia Carole, Ann Southern Marsha Hunt and last but not least Lena Horn. That was the best picture I have ever seen
for close-ups wow!

I didn't get to see Laird again
but I hope to see him soon. I believe he has begun work over here and I'm anxious to see him.

I saw "Sky's The Limit"
some time ago and liked it very much too.

I'm sorry to hear about your sister-in-law being burned but I'm glad she was not seriously injured. I don't believe I've ever seen her. Fact is I've only seen Donald once in my life

He was in Mr. Brunson's a long time ago when I was still in High School.

By the way I'm trying, in my usual way to answer your letter #21. It came in after #22.
I think I'm on #17 ~~now~~ ^{now}. I hope
I haven't messed up my numbering again.

I also told you in my last letter that I was sorry that I fail to send you a valentine. I received yours and I appreciate it very much.

When Betty asks you to eat ice cream don't ever say no
just go in and if you don't want any just eat some for me. I'm so hungry for the old cream

& can just see it before me now.

Your latest letter told me
that Aunt Maysa was to come back to Houston so I guess I won't need the address at Orange.

I haven't been site seeing in London for some time and I want to be sure and go one of these days.
Time before last I went back to Westminster Abbey for the third time.
It was a rare and beautiful day
in London that day and I enjoyed walking around the town. You see so many Americans in London now
and the town is full of M.P.'s.
I met an old Army boy my last time on and we had a long talk about old times. He was my upper classman when I was there and it gave me a little satisfaction
to see two gold bars on his shoulders

He was about the best upperclassman I had though and like him a lot. He is a Thunderbolt pilot.

"Madame Curie" is coming to London and will have its Premiere, sometime this week. I do want to see this one. It looks like Gene Garson might get the Academy Award again this year for Random Harvest but I'm still for Ingrid Bergman.

I guess I've run on long enough again. Be sure to tell the gang of the new address.

391st Group (Bomb) 572 Sqdn.

Tell mom too. I'm writing her tonight but you might receive yours first.

Be sweet.

Love
Bill

Handwritten text, possibly a list or notes, including the number '90'.

Handwritten text, possibly a list or notes, including the number '90'.

LT. WILLIAM D. LEWIS O-665925
391st Bomb Group 572nd Sqn.
A.P.O. 638 % Postmaster
New York, N.Y.

U.S. ARMY POSTAL SERVICE
FEB 18 1944
416
A.P.O.

PASSED BY S
BASE BY S
1060
ARMY
EXAMINER

Miss June Grenstein
2314 Watson

Houston, Texas

CENSORED
William D. Lewis
1st Lt A.C.