

January 26.

Dearest June:

I received your letter # 20 today written on Jan. 14 which is almost a record, don't you think? Of course this one is out of order because the last one I received from you was # 16. In fact both 14 & 15 were written on the same day Dec 27.

Maybe it is because of the missing letters that I don't understand about this Coast Guard examination. I thought you had your time pretty well taken up by now.

Yes. I knew J.C. also a little and also Thelma Joyce. I doubt if they would remember me though.

About Ruby and Alvin the only thing I have to say is that I myself couldn't stand to have someone as jealous of me as he said she was of him. Remember this is between you and me. I don't think Alvin would appreciate our making him a subject in gossip. I guess it really isn't any of our business, huh? I do think he would be better off married though.

Of all the song played while you were writing #20 I guess I would rather have heard "Without a Song" more than either. I think the one that is tops with me among the current ditties
is "My Heart Tells Me".

I guess you've gathered by now that I've been trying to answer your letter, but when I came to the P.S.:

"To be quite frank, I just don't understand you at all"

Well, I'm stumped. I don't know what I've done or said that brought that on.

"Silver Wings In The Moonlight"
is the full title of the song I told you about. It has come and gone here.

I had an eventful trip to London a few days ago. - - - - -

I met Bob Schalit in the Red Cross Club. I don't know whether you remember him or not. He and I saw some fun together in Junior & Senior High! He is with the R.A.F. and is looking good. We sat up till 2:30 A.M. one night just talking about things. He has been here a long time.

The second one I met was Ken Doherty from Houston. He is a fighter pilot over here and he was good for me. He was with me when I was at Kelly Field the first time and he was classified pilot at the same time they broke my heart and said I was a navigator! I had quite a bit to talk over with him also! He also has been here quite a bit longer than I have. His mother runs a Cafe somewhere in Houston. He said her place was robbed a few weeks ago. Ken is a good little pilot you can tell by the colors under his wings.

While I was in Big City I saw quite a few of the shows:

Guadalcanal Diary - - Very good
It was so much better than I expected
Not so much flag waving - more real story.

Lost Angel - - - I don't know what name this will be under in U.S.
but, June, by all means see it. Marsha Hunt, James Craig & Margaret O'Brien.

And The Angels Sing So. So.

This is The Army This one was good and as I remember you liked
this one too.

I also ~~brought~~ bought a new blouse. My old one is getting a bit worn.

Well, sweet, I guess this is all again. I'll write again soon.

Love
Bill
