Hello Cutie:

Just a little note and a picture that I promised to send ages ago. Had trouble finding an envelope large enough for the print. Hope you are ~~as~~ ^{as} well ~~and~~ ^{and} happy as you should be.

I haven't anything of interest to say really. I received a letter from Lurline today and also one from Bonnie. Everything seems O.K. at home. Pop Denver seems to be O.K., but I guess you know all about that.

I think I'll go to the show tonight. I don't know just what is playing but it doesn't make a great deal of difference.

as ever

Billy

I hope you like the picture by the way
