

June 24
Saturday - nite A. K.

Dear June:

Please excuse: the letters are few and far between I know. It is my fault I can't seem to find anything to write about these days. Your letters are coming in every day #66 has arrived. I'm glad that the letters from England & Italy are coming through now. To tell you the truth though I'd I've written so very little lately you probably won't notice any difference.

Just saw a pretty good show: "Young Ideas" with Susan Peters. I guess you saw it long ago. I liked it very much she is very good.

I guess Bess is back from her trip to Bandera by now with enough stores to keep her going for weeks. I wish I could have been there: Bandera is quite a place.

I had another pass at the time I still had one and we spent it in London, and need I say a good time was had by all; but oh! how I felt the next morning.

We haven't had too much music lately but I was glad to find out the top song from your copy of the Hit Parade. I was glad to see "I'll Get By" so near the top. You know I just found out the other day that that is not a new song but one that was popular some time ago like "As Time Goes By".

By the way, while in London we (Shirley & I) saw "Lady In The Dark". I enjoyed it very much. There were so many good ones in London we had a time deciding which one it was going to be "Follow The Boys",
"Up In Arms", "Covey Girl" and "Phantom Lady" were some of those playing. Bing Crosby's "Going My Way" will soon be there too. I might add that "Song With The Wind" is now in its fifth year straight running at a first class theatre.

I hope your folks are doing O.K.
and give them my best, please.

Lurline tells me that her Pop is a little ill but she doesn't think it is too much to worry about. I hope not.

Mick is still O.K. but working pretty hard. He doesn't mind however, he is a very eager boy.

Well, I guess I've run out of things to say again so I'll leave you. Please excuse this no news letter, I'll do better next time: I'm sure I couldn't do any worse

as ever,
Bill
