

March 10.
England:

Dearest June:

I received your first letter written to my present address, yesterday it was #33. All of your letters have been rolling in regularly lately all of which goes to help my morale.

Speaking of morale I had mine jump a few more points last night. I met Laird in a near by town and we had a bull session. It was our first meeting in quite some time and our second in the E.L.O. We just walked and talked and had a few beers also a few fish & chips. Many things have happened since our first meeting. It doesn't take long for things to happen these days. Lard has eleven missions to his credit and one of them was Berlin. He is doing a wonderful job, which I expected.

I'm leaving in a few days for a rest and during the leave I'm going down to his base and visit awhile.

I sent Mom a picture of the crew of the "Bird Dog Special" and I have one left. If the one I sent her gets to its destination O.K. I will send you the one I have left if you would like it. I haven't been taking any pictures because it is almost impossible to get them developed. I had two rolls taken in Cambridge and they were lost while being finished.

I hope to see about twenty shows on my leave. I usually average two a day when I'm in London. I want to see "Song of Bernadette" with the little Academy Award winner.

I received a couple letters from Alvin. He was giving me the very devil for not writing and I'm guilty, too, but I've not been writing to anyone for the past few weeks or had you noticed.

Tell Aunt Myra hello for me. I hope she gets along o.k. Tell your folks hello also. I would like to meet Phil if I knew where to find him.

Love,
Bill
