Dearest June:

This will be a short one, although I haven't written in quite a few days. I just wanted you to get my new address. yes. I've done it again. around and around you go and where you stop is where you started.

Had a long talk with Mick today. We are in the same outfit but in different squadrons. Joe is doing fine has light missions as a first pilot now. I said good bye to Shirley just a few days ago. Of course we weren't sure at the time that he was going home but the chances of him doing so were very good. With luck he is probably on his way now.

I received about four letters from you during the week. One of them was one that was written to Avon Park way back there. Another one wished you good luck in the coming events and for that I thank you so much. I also appreciated the Hit Parade lists. There are so many of the songs that I've never heard. I'll bet "San Fernando" is pretty, one that Bing could really knock out.

There isn't a great deal of news to give you at this time. I'm having one ~~to~~ of a time keeping my figure streamlined outside of that things are well. I received a package from Pop today. If you see him you might mention it and thank him. I intend to write him tonight also but you may receive this note first.

Give my love to all and I'll write again soon - promise always,

Bell
