

September 30,
Somewhere in England:

Dearest June:

How is my 'lil one today? I haven't heard from you in two weeks now, but I know you are writing and your letters will catch up with me one of these days. The last one I received was the one in which you really bawled me out but good. Of course it came after the letter that you wrote the next day which ^{was} much sweeter. You know in all the years that I've known you I remember only very few instances when you were angry.

I was in London a few days ago and I danced again (first time in a long time) I had a date with the Canadian W.C. that I met some time ago. I think I told you about her. She is from Toronto and is very good company and we had lots of fun. (Not near as much fun as I'll have the night I take a lil Brown eyed girl to the seat though).

I finally saw "Lender Comrade" the other night. I didn't think too much of it to tell the truth

Barbara Stanwyck & Mac Murray were good in their latest, however "Double Indemnity" is?

"The Story of Dr. Waesel", well I liked the book much better. Too much flag waving is bad. You see I can still enjoy seeing the shows. I lost the habit for a long while but now I've started all over again.

I'm not with Partridge anymore but John is still with me. I haven't heard from Muck since he arrived in the States I hope Betty has.

Well, Honey, I hope my letters are reaching you and believe me I'm doing my best to write more. I hope to see you in the not too far distant future. I miss you so very much.

always
Billy

P.S. Please, if you see or talk to Alvin, tell him hello for me. If Ben comes home tell him likewise. I have a strong feeling that Lard is there also.
