

Dear Little Girls:

14 July

Tomorrow I'm forecast for return to USA. I certainly hope that it will be the Southwest and Training Command and actually with my background I can't see them giving me anything else.

I received a very nice letter from Wheeler, however, it was a little late. He has an opening (Lukie's) which will pay $2400 for eleven months. After I get back if it's still there I'm sure I can obtain release from Air Force. It can be done and has been done.

I've getting nervous about my return to the home front; it will be so wonderful to be back surrounded by my six brown eyes.

I had a little session with a bad stomach last week but it is all ok now.
I guess I eat too many french fried potatoes.

I can't tell from the box whether Mom's tea set is the same as ours or not. May be a different design. I'm supposed to go to Harmon AFB today
so I'll have to send the box tomorrow.

I love you all so dearly,

Billy
